DownTown Streets Team

San Francisco, CA

Researcher/Consultant

September 2020 - April 2021

- Researched, in a team of four, the Homelessness Crisis in San Francisco to devise a framework to inform effective policy design on the subject
 - The final deliverable was a pitch deck where we evaluated NGOs working towards curbing the crisis. By highlighting the organizational strengths and weaknesses we helped policymakers understand how they could leverage their help in solving the problem. Moreover, this was also made available to the public to be used as a guide for those seeking shelter and/or looking for institutes to refine their skills
 - As Project Manager, created a timeline to guide the research process, presided over all meetings conducted weekly, ensured fair allotment of workload across all individuals, and ensured that deadlines were met
